Possibilities of Enjoyment at Festivities Participated in Only by Women Demonstrated by Mrs. McLean's Dove Party.

dence here, popular socially.

debutante daughter of Senator Aldrich.

night at Churchill House, which was wearing a gown of heavy gray brocade with duchess lace garniture. Miss Aldrich wore a princess gown of white lace, and quiet ceremony

to perform the ceremony.

The following were present: Mr. Clarence C. Carty, father of the groom, from Frederick, Md.; Rev. Arthur C. Carty, of

Miss Joanna Best, Miss Ethel M. Jones,

At the wedding of Miss Bessle Mae and Mrs. Hazen, to Mr. Martin R.

Boyrne, which will take place at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening at St. Mark's Church.

the bride will be attended by her sister.

Miss Katherine Hazen,
Mr. W. W. Fleharty will be best man.

Miss Eliza Sweet. The ushers will be

Mr. A. A. Lipscomb, Mr. Philip Arth, Mr.

Marvin Towne, Mr. Francis Evans, Mr.

Interest is manifested in society and D.

tinental congresses held here.

N AFTERMATH of the week's for Mrs. Davis, who was Miss Daisy Colfestivities is the talk of the reevent of last autumn. cent dinner Mrs. John R. Mc-Lean gave for thirty-five ladies. take his bride to Persia, where he has bride. Not a gentleman was asked. The occa-Lean gave for thirty-five ladies. sion is reported by lucky guests to have been the prettiest and most unique enter-

The table was glorious in decoration, and worthy to be the board of a king, was the verdict passed by a matron who was the verdict passed by a matron who dinner a week ago Tuesday. Last night has seen much in this country, and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Boal were their abroad, where she has been a guest at court dinners.

Hundreds of pink carnations were used their hostess at dinner.

No date has been set for the wedding of Miss Alice Miller and Mr. de Peyster.

was regally beautiful.

After the dinner the ladies congregated in the ballroom, furnished all in a cold gray, which becomes an attractive backwas regally beautiful ground for any brilliant party. Here was account of the ill health of the former. presented a programme by a portion of the Marine Band.

After the concert, Mrs. Lawrence Townsend, of New York, the guest of Mrs. Richard Townsend, sang and danced for her hostess and fellow-guests. She is social movements of Miss Elsle Aldrich, clever and graceful as a dancer, and often entertains her friends in this manner. On this occasion she danced a fan dance.

Some of the ladies present were: Mrs. beautiful in its decorations. The guests Leiter, Mrs. Fish, Mrs. Draper, Mrs. entered the bailroom through a vista of Warder, Mrs. Oliver, Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. Hope Slater, Mrs. Ludlow, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Robert McCormick, Mrs. Richson, Mrs. Robert McCormick, Mrs. Rich-ard Townsend, Miss Kean, Miss Mabel azaleas. From big electroliers on all was given for Mrs. Wadsworth, who is was suspended a huge wreath of roses. on to join her daughter, Miss Harriet Wadsworth, in England for the London

This dove party has proved that the ladies can have quite as good a time by themselves as the men at their stag afthemselves as the men at their stag af-fairs. That they did enjoy themselves given in the early evening, including those hugely is evinced by the fact that they of Mrs. Harry Parsons Cross, Mrs. William did not go home until 12:30.

One of the husbands left at home, Senator Foraker, grew worried about his wife and called up the McLean residence to know what on earth had become of Rivaling the most popular debutante of the season is the newly arrived Japanese cially for the event. Ambassador, Baron Takahira, who is crowding into the few remaining days WEDDINGS-ENGAGEMENTS before Lent the host of calls he wishes to make while at homes are still on the

Everywhere one goes one meets the daughter, Miss Emeretta Root, to Dr. popular envoy from the Mikado's court. Renier J. Straeten, U. S. N. The date Royal is his welcome, for after his long for the wedding has not been fixed. previous residence here, he has a host

Every Cabinet hostess and nearly every Senator's wife has received a call from the newly made Ambassador. Of course, all his confreres, the ambassadors in diplomatic corps, have been recipients of the baron's official visits.

Baroness Takahira will join the Ambas- secker, of this city, and Mr. Frank R. sador in May or June. They will con-tinue to reside in the embassy in K The quiet ceremony street, leased by Baron Aoki, and not return to the old legation in N street, of the bride's mother, $12 Eighth street which has for the past two years served southeast. The parlors were decorated. as a chancellery of the embassy, marriages of the spring are claiming at- roses tention. Several nuptial events of inter-

There is the marriage of Miss Helen Ffoulke daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ffoulke, and M. Havenith, the newly appointed Belgian Minister to Per- Philadelphia to spend their honeymoon sia. Miss Alice Miller, daughter of Com-mander and Mrs. Miller is to wed Mr. They will be at home to their friends after April 1. mander and Mrs. Miller, is to wed Mr. Frederick Ashton de Peyster, of New York. Miss Elizabeth Oliver's marriage to Mr. Frederick Stevens. of New York, Philadelphia: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jones, will soon take place, and will probably lead the series. Miss Edith Sanger and Master Roland K. Jones, Mrs. F. Wood gomery Blair. Mr. Mandeville Carlisle will also probably be united in matrimony this spring, and Mrs. J. A. Finch, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. J. F. Webster, and others. though no date has been set.

The Carlisle-Sanger engagement, announced Friday night at the Chevy Chase Hazen, daughter of Dr. W. P. C. Hazen Club, came as a happy denouement of and Mrs. Hazen, to Mr. Martin R. the party given by Capt. and Mrs. Hud-

The cards of invitations sent out by Mr. and Mrs. Poole were "To meet Capt. Pcole," a way to let his friends know he had been promoted to the rank of captain. With a promotion in the army and the announcement of an engagement to crowd it was that dined and danced at the quaint little country club at Chevy

This engagement seems to have struck a particularly sympathetic note with the many friends of the young people and of their respective families. Both are young good-looking, clever, and popular generally. Both are fond of athletics, each having a record for tennis playing. Miss Sanger held the tennis champion ship two seasons at the Chevy Chase Club. Mr. Carlisle was a member of the 'varsity football team at Yale. He also rides much, and is generally fond of out-

He is on the committee of Washington's smartest dancing club, the Bach-elors, and professionally is a rising young Miss Sanger is pronounced by some of in Washington. She is also studious and well read, with German and French at her tongue's end. She is musical, as well, and studied in Dresden.

She was introduced here some years ago when Gen. Sanger came to Washing-Ever since she has been a favorite

For years she and Mr. Carlisle have been friends. His sister, Miss Mary Carlisle, is an intimate friend of Miss Sanger. Last spring Mr. Carlisle's mother, Mrs. Calderon Carlisle, chaperoned a party to Palm Beach, of which her son and Miss Sanger were members. Miss Sanger gave a dinner for Miss Mary carlisle before she went abroad this fall to spend the winter in Athens with her aunt, the wife of the United States Minister to Greece.

No date was set for the wedding, but it will probably occur this spring, when the brother of the bride, Mr. Prentice Sanger, is also to be married.

Miss Oliver, daughter of the Assistant Secretary of War, has set no date as yet for her wedding. It is understood it will be in the immediate future, in Washington, and will be quiet.

It was Mrs. Oliver's wish that her daughter and Mr. Stevens wait until the summer and have the wedding in the quaint little church they attend in the Canadian village where they always spend the summer, and where every man, woman, and child knows the bride-to-be, and where she has gotten material for some of her pretty French Canadian wise, however. Miss Oliver is just re-turning from New York, where she went to arrange for the wedding, and with Mr. Stevens to select their new home. They will probably locate at Lawrence,

Miss Helen Ffoulke and M. Havenith will be married March 26, at noon, at her me, in Massachusetts avenue. Miss Ffoulke will have but de attendant. The maid of honor will be probably Miss Louise Foraker, an intimate friend, with whom Miss Ffoulke served as bride

West Point during Lieut, Dallam's cadet-ship there, and by the Rev. Osborne Ingle, of Frederick, Md., who performed he ceremony for the bride's mother and father, twenty-five years ago. Bishop Potter, of New York, will pronounce the

The bride will have her sisters, Miss Rebekah McLean, as maid of honor, and Miss Emily McLean, as flower girl. Capt. R. A. Dallam, brother of the bridegroom, will be the best man. The ushers will be Mr. Albert Ritchie, Mr. Wallace Don-ald McLean, Mr. William Boldin, 3d, and After the wedding, M. Havenith will Mr. Ritchie Kimball, all cousins of the pointment comes as a promotion from his post here as counselor of the Belgian the ceremony in the church. Only the bridal party will be entertained in the McLean home afterward. Yellow will be the color scheme at the Legation.

The Belgian Minister and the Baroness wedding, out of compliment to the cavalry service. Yellow jorquils, daffodils, and tertaining to be done for these popular members of society. They gave them a roses will be used in decorating the thurch and house, interwoven with the After the wedding trip of several weeks, hosts. On March 16 Miss Cockrell, daugh-

the bride and bridegroom will take up their residence at Fort Oglethorpe. er of former Senator Cockrell, will be The pretty romance began at West Point, when Miss McLean was a school-girl and her flance a cadet. An engagement was forbidden then, and the young people did not meet again until last summer, when Miss McLean accompanied her mother to the Jamestown Exposition, for the opening of the D. A. R. Building at Miss Alice Miller is an attractive blond with a pretty color, and, like her sister.

Lieut. Dallam's regiment was detailed Miss Edith Miller, was, during their resifor duty there during the summer. The young people met frequently. The engagement was announced to the families and a few close friends before the sum-Washington society is interested in the mer was over, but was not made public Mis Aldrich gave a ball last Tuesday Among the many wedding presents re ceived by Miss McLean is a miniature portrait of her mother which was re-cently executed by Miss Frances Fleet. tropical foliage and flowers. Stairways, Miss Beulah Taylor, of Sligo, Md., and balconies, and doorways were outlined with masses of smilax and vines mingled Mr. Elijah Leizear, of Lay Hill, Md., were quietly married at Colesville Wed-Boardman, Mrs. Metcalf, Mrs. Foraker, and Mrs. James Wadsworth. The dinner flowers, while from the center of the room of this city, a brother of the bride, and Mr. S. Leizear, a brother of the groom The couple will reside in Washington.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

carried an armful of roses. It was after complimentary to Gen. and Mrs. William avenue Carey Sanger, of New York. Invited to Grosvenor, Mrs. Le Baron B. Colt. Mrs. meet them were: Senator Aldrich, Rep-Frank A. Sayles, and Mrs. Harry Pearce, resentative and Mrs. Gardiner, the Swiss jr. Between 200 and 300 guests were pres-Minister, Mr. Vogel, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre ent, including many of the older set and a contingent of Harvard and Yale men. Senator Aldrich was not present because of duties in Washington. Mr. John D. Lorillard, Miss Williams, Miss Ernst, Miss Josephine Patten, and Gen. Clayton, former Ambassador to Mexico.

The Third Secretary of the French Em-Aldrich, came on from New York espebassy and the Vicomtesse de Martel entertained at luncheon yesterday, having as their guests the Counselor French Embassy and Mme. des Portes, Miss Patten, Miss Robern, Miss Isabelle May, Mr. Tardieu, of Paris; M. Kroupen announce the engagement of their sky, of the Russian Embassy; Count Hatzfeldt, of the German Embassy: Baron Ambrozy, of the Austro-Hungarian Embassy, and Mr. Walter Berry.

The engagement is announced of Miss M. and Mme. des Portes have closed their house in Connecticut avenue, and Lillian Ephriam, of New York, to Mr. Sigmund Silverberg, of this city, who is now at 414 155th street, New York City. Announcement was made yesterday of sence. Mile. Guilmette des Portes is the place, between C and D streets northwest. the marriage of Miss Katharine M. Kie-Martel until she leaves next week with

> Miss Katherine Cameron, of New York, who has joined the winter colony here and

A feature was the attendance of the groom's brother, Rev. Arthur C. Carty. pastor of the Church of Transfiguration of Philadelphia, who came on from the city

> Mrs. Richard Reid Rogers entertained last night at dinner, followed by bridge. Among the guests were her house guests, the Counselor of the French Embassy and Mmc. des Portes, and Mr. and Mrs. Mont-among those entertaining at dinner last east, from 3 to 5.

guest at a tea given to Dr. and Mrs. tea table. Baker's friends to meet Mr. Burroughs.

Blumer, a cousin of Miss Hazen, and evening, which was followed later by a William T. Jones, and Mr. Chester A.

Representative and Mrs. Madden will entertain at a large dinner to-morrow night, complimentary to the Speaker of A. R. circles here in the approaching marriage of Miss Bessie Maulsby Mc-Lean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald meet them will be the Illinois delegation McLean, of New York, to Lieut, William and a number of other friends. A. Dallam, Twelfth Cavalry, U. S. A., stationed at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Boal enter-The ceremony will be performed at 4:30 tained informally at dinner last evening folks entered heartily into the novelty o'clock on Tuesday, in the Church of the complimentary to Miss Helen Ffoulke and of leap year ideas. Heavenly Rest. New York, by the Rev. Mr. E. Havenith, formerly of the Bel-J. Nevett Steele, cousin of Mrs. McLean gian Legation, whose wedding will take and a familiar figure at the recent Con-

He will be assisted by Rev. Herbert Mrs. Lauterbeck entertained at tea Shipman, rector of the Church of the yesterday afternoon, at the New Willard,

Wedding Gifts

for Spring Brides

THE completeness of our stocks, wide range of prices, and guarantee of but one quality, The Best, make the selection of appropriate Wedding

Gifts a simple matter. Inspection in no

Wedding Invitations and Marriage Announcements

Engraved in most approved form.

GALT & BRO.,

Established Over a Century,

Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers,

1107 Pennsylvania Avenue.

way implies obligation to purchase.

MISS BESSIE WYNNE,

tractively decorated with palms and American Beauty roses.

Mrs. William Corcoran Hill will entertain at tea Monday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. John Thompson Spencer,

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Denny entertained at dinner last evening at their residence in Nineteenth street.

Mrs. Charles G. Bennett, wife of the

The Peruvian Minister and Mme. Pardo

Senor Augusto Pulido, who is to leave whom a dinner was given at the Metro- New Willard. Senor Pulido was also entertained at dinner by the Minister from Chile and

Mme. Cruz Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wolcott Tuckerman were among those entertaining at dinner last

Mrs. Charles H. Babbitt will be at home informally to-morrow from 3 to 6 o'clock, but will not receive the following Monday.

The executive committee of the Ladies' are staying with Mrs. Reid Rogers until Missionary Society of the First Presbynext Wednesday, when they leave for terian Church have issued cards for a New York, preparatory to sailing the following day for France on leave of above evening at 8 o'clock, John Marshall row evening at 8 o'clock row evening at 8 night witness the opening performance The bride was attired in a gown of taken a house, 1525 Eighteenth street, en- Charles Needham, Judge and Mrs. Ashley green broadcloth with hat to match, and tertained at luncheon yesterday for Miss Gould, Judge Goldfogie, Senor Don Manuel With the approach of Lent the coming carried in her hand a bouquet of Bride Ethel Barrymore, who has been playing Walls y Merino, of the Spanish Legation. Senator Cockrell, Capt. Frank Evans, matic corps were invited to meet the Cockran, Capt. Patterson, U. S. A.; Mr popular actress.

and Mrs. John Wilkins, Mr. and Mrs. timore; Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Pressler, Mr. Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Magruder also James L. Barbour, Judge Sabath, Dr. D. Pressler, Mr. and Mrs. M. Keller, Mr. entertained complimentary to Miss Barrymore in the afternoon, giving a tea, at which many were invited to meet her.

Mrs. Lillian Marscher Schyser, who is visiting her parents, of 220 East Capitol Monday.

Mrs. Marx Kaufman, Mrs. Harry Kauf nan, and Mrs. Elliot Strouse, of Balti-Rear Admiral and Mrs. Gheen were Tuesday, March 10, at 719 D street south-

Mr. John Burroughs, the naturalist and time this season last Monday. She was 500 party on Tuesday. The guests were writer, is visiting Dr. and Mrs. Frank assisted in receiving by Mrs. W. H. Crook, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Miss Phillips, Mr. Baker at their home, in Columbia road. Mrs. Kitchin, and Mrs. Ramsay. Miss and Mrs. Jansen, Mrs. Kealcoss, Miss Yesterday afternoon he was the chief Haley and Miss Stevenson presided at the Kealcoss, Mr. Gehring, of Pittsburg, Pa.;

Class '06 of the Business High School Barchfeld, The Secretary of Commerce and Labor will give its initial dance Thursday night, and Mrs. Straus entertained at a young at Mrs. Dyer's. The class officers are: people's dinner of twenty covers last Mr. E. L. Irey, president; Miss Marie evening, which was followed later by a Donn, vice president; Miss Jennie Friel, secretary, and Mr. Ernest Johnston, treasurer.

dance are: Mr. Owen Gibson, Mr. Harry Chaney, Mr. David Hart, and Mr. John-

The leap year dance given by the young ladies of St. Mary's, Wednesday night, was a merry occasion. All the young

During intermission there was a grand Theater. march, led by the ladies of the committee to the reception room, where refresh-

The arrangements and success were due hiefly to the efforts of the following ladies of the committee: May Berberich, rived in New York yesterday, and will Mayme C. Rupport. Cecilia M. Borger, go to Florida for a visit of some time, Rose Ruppert, Josephine Joachim, Lena will stop in Washington on her way Ruppert, Anna Berberich, Antoinette South Though it has not been definitely Weiss, and Mary Ruppert.

Literary Society was held Friday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank day. Towner, of 1204 Newton street, Brookand. The special features of the occasion were an address by Judge William H. De Lacy, of the Juvenile Court of the District, and a chalk talk by Mr. Clifford Mr. William Quinn presided. The invited guests were:

Judge William H. De Lacy, Mr. Clifford Berryman, Rev. and Mrs. Morgan-Jones, Rev. and Mrs. Millington, Mr. William L. Marsh, Rev. Dr. Hyvernat, Dr. and Mrs. Lennox, Dr. McCarry, Dr. and Mrs. Dolloway, Dr. and Mrs. True, Dr. and Mrs. Henderson, Dr. and Mrs. Breoks, Dr. Sappington, Dr. Edmunds, Dr. Dollmann, Mr. and Mrs. William Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. Heffield, Mrs. Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. Gross, Mr. and Mrs. Hetfield.
Mrs. And Miss Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Moister, Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs, the Misses Marean, Mr. and Mrs. Cheesman, Mrs. Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Kinnan, Mr. and Mrs. Harrell, Mr. and Mrs. Carmick, Miss Tice, Mr. Edward Carmick, Mr. and Mrs. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Melus, Mr. and Mrs.
Lennon, Miss Ward, Miss Marsh, Mr. and Mrs.
Zollinger, Mr. and Mrs. Edmunds, Mr. and Mrs.
Harrisou, Mr. and Mrs. Hollidge, Judge and Mrs.
Harrisou, Mr. and Mrs. Hollidge, Judge and Mrs.
Pennybacker, Miss Pennybacker, Mrs. and Miss Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. I. Pennybacker, Dr. and Mrs.
Weeks, Miss Fletcher, Miss Woodsuff, Mr. and Miss
Burr, Miss Norville, and Mrs. and Mrs. Berryman.

The members and friends of the Exelsior Literary Club, to the number of birthday of George Washington. A of climate. charming programme, both musical and literary, had been prepared by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Alexander Kent visit. and Mrs. Dow, and after the opening remarks by the president, Mrs. Engle, was presented as follows: A piano solo, "Tann-hauser," by Miss Neil; vocal solos, by Mrs. Smith, with violin accimpaniment ter, Mrs. A. K. Leon. Mrs. Smith, with violin accimpaniment by Mr Palmer; vocal solos, by Miss Neil; by Mr. Palmer; vocal solos, by Miss Neil; Miss Ernestine Rich, Miss Celeste Good-zither solos, patriotic and classical, by man, Miss Lillian Harris, Miss Rhoda write or phone Downey's Stables, 1824 I st. The finest turnouts hired at very reasonable rates. Prompt. courteous service

Mr. Muller, and a violin and piano duet, written especially for the occasion, by Mr. Palmer. The literary selections were a recitation, "George's Cherry Tree," by Miss Blanche McCreery; reading, "The Heart of Old Hickory," by Rev. Alexan-der Kent; "Uncle Sam," in costume, Mr. Palmer, and a dramatic recitation, "Old Glory," by Mrs. Flathers, who stood under the drapery of a magnificent flag. The president concluded the programme with a few happy remarks, after which the hostess served refreshments, and the re-mainder of the evening was devoted to social intercourse.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Eighth Street Temple will hold their regular meting to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the vestry rooms of the tem-

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Weyl, of Brightwood, were tendered a surprise party on Saturday evening. The guests, all wearing colonial costumes, were Mr. and Mrs. Max Weyl, Miss Hattye Weyl, Miss Tillie Raff. Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Engel, Mrs. Addie Sigmund, Mr. and Mrs. M. New-meyer, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Fishel, and Miss Rena Fishel.

Monday night a masquerade party was given by the Noel House Social Club at its club rooms, 1243 H street northeast. The hall was decorated with national and club colors. The arrangements were in harge of Miss M. Doyle, Miss M. Gerald. and F. Watson. Miss Joy Colwell, as America, won the ladies' prize, while Mr. Daniel Carroll, as a clown, the gentleman's. Refreshments were served, and dancing enjoyed until a late hour. Prof. Hamlin furnished the music. present were:

present were:

Mr. and Mrs. T. McKenna, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hanlin, Mr. and Mrs. H. Brown, Mrs. A. Whitney, Mrs. C. Spicer, Miss P. Tansell, Miss M. Gerald, Miss E. Gladman, Miss C. Carrington, Miss L. Brown, Miss I. Doyle, Miss M. Doyle, Miss G. Sherwood, Miss F. Halm, Miss M. Kleinhenn, Miss M. O. Kleinhenn, Miss J. Colwell, and Miss M. Connors; Mr. D. Carroll, Mr. C. Smith, Mr. H. Smith, Mr. R. Hartley, Mr. G. Maisak, Mr. J. Martin, Mr. F. Watson, Mr. H. Watson, Mr. H. Gregor, Mr. J. Thompson, Mr. R. Dodd, Mr. W. Doyle, Mr. T. Doyle, Mr. J. Lawless, Mr. R. Cady, Mr. C. Brown, Mr. H. Brown, and Mr. J. Brown.

The second of a series of five euchres was given by Mount Vernon Hive, L. O. T. M., last Friday evening. The party secretary of the Senate, will entertain at was largely attended, and thirty hand-The Belgian Minister and the Baroness a tea Tuesday afternoon from 4 till 7 some prizes were awarded. Mrs. Kather-Moncheur entertained at dinner last night o'clock at her home, 1402 Massachusetts ine Cartner was chairman of the euchre

Lady Commander Senay, of Mount Ver-non Hive, will leave shortly for an exwere among the dinner hosts Friday tended visit to Philadelphia and New

Mrs. Wheeler, wife of Representative Washington shortly to return to Vene- Wheeler, and Miss Wheeler will receive zuela, was the guest complimentary to on Tuesday, March 3, from 4 to 5, at the

> The Imperial Club will give a dance at Dyer's Hall on Wednesday evening,

Dr. and Mrs. Abram Simon, of University place, had as dinner guests on Tuesday Mr. Walter Mandelbaum and Mr. Lester Heyn, of Omaha, Nebr.

A very enjoyable leap-year dance was given at the Mercantile Club on Wednesday evening. The hall was decorated with thur Newman went to Baltimore yester-Japanese lanterns, and rustic benches day to attend the leap year german given were scattered about. At midnight a supper was served. The guests were:

Misses Lillian Cobienzer, Rena Fleischman, Belli Schiffman, Florence Gusdorff, Marguerite Ka-fman Ernestine Rich, Celeste Goodman, Leona Stern Carrye Robinson, Rita Baer, Rhoda Mantner, Selm In the audience that will to-morrow Kahn, Gladys Mayer, Lillian Harris, Dera Garner, night witness the opening performance of David Belasco's "The Rose of the Cauerbach," at the Belasco's Theorem William Harris, Dera Garner, Richard Walner, Lorraine Herman, and Messa, Malcolm C. Auerbach, Lester Neuman, Stanley Fischer, Arthur Neuman, Herbert Rich, David Baer, Ber-Rancho" at the Belasco Theater, will be seen Mrs. John A. Logan, Dr. and Mrs. Seen Mrs. John A. Logan, Dr. and Mrs. King, Arthur Luchs, Lester Marx, and David Stern.

> niversary on Sunday evening. Among the Occidental and Mrs. M. Bendheim, Mr. J. Bendh Miss Cora Sommers, and Mr and Mrs A masquerade ball will be given at Masonic Temple on March 18, under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Eighth Street Temple. Elaborate preparations are being made for the event, and nandsome prizes will be awarded for the more, will be at home to their friends most original, as well as the prettiest

Representative and Mrs. A. J. Barch-Mrs. Rainey was at home for the last feld, of the Connecticut, entertained at a Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Abel, Miss Laura Adler, of Pittsburg, and Miss Helen > Mrs. Sol Meyer entertained the Afternoon Bridge Club on Wednesday after- News, Va., spent a few days in the city noon. The club prize was won by Mrs. en route to New York.

The board of lady visitors of the Washington Hospital for Foundlings will have a first-night benefit at the New National Theater, Monday, March 9, for the opening performance of Eleanor Robson, in 'Salomy Jane." Tickets may be obtained from any of the ladies of the board or from Mrs. Simon Wolf, 1756 Q street northwest, until Thursday, March 5, when they will be on sale at the National

PERSONALS.

The Duchess of Southerland, who ar-South. Though it has not been definitely Louise C. Ruppert, Mary stated, she will probably arrive here this

> Mrs. Fairbanks will leave Washington for a visit of two weeks next Wednes-

> Mrs. Kelly, widow of Gen. B. F. Kelly, is passing some time at the Grafton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Lincoln are taking an extended trip through the South, and Berryman. The president of the society, will attend the Mardi Gras at New Orleans, afterward visiting Cuba before re-The British Ambassador and Mrs.

Bryce, who several weeks ago went to Canada and stopped on their return to the embassy for a visit in Boston, will probably arrive in Washington Tuesday. Mr. Beresford Hope, of the British Em bassy staff, who also went to Canada, taking his departure a few days after the Ambassador, returned to Washington Viscomte de Chambrun, of the French Embassy, who has been spending some months on leave in Paris, sailed from

Mme. Bonaparte and her son, Jerome Bonaparte will leave Tuesday for a verr orty, met at the home of Mrs. Edith and a half's residence abroad. Mmc. Sage Emerson. @ T street northwest, to Bonaparte has been in poor health fer celebrate in an appropriate manner the some time, and hopes to gain by change expected here next Saturday.

avenue, are in Atlantic City for a short Miss Virdie Steiner, of L street, is vis-

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lyon, of Vermont

Louvre Glove 85

931 F St.

Two Extra Special Bargains for Monday.

Glove Bargain

Ladies' $3.00 12-button Suede Gloves in black, gray, and tanfinest qualities-our own importations.

> special, $1.54

Monday

Bargain

Waist

Ladies' $20 and $25 hand-made and handembroidered Lingerie Waists-all French importations (slightly mussed), will be closed out Monday at $10.75

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

 WANTED-Male Voices for Opera of "Fatinitza."

NEW YORK

Washington Branch, Brentano Building, 12th and F.

MRS. HENRY HUNT McKEE, Director. Pupils Prepared for Grand and Light Opera. Chorus now being organized and casts selected for opera performances. All rehearsals on large stage with orchestra.

Operas given under personal supervision of Mme. Crane. Dominico Savini, Conductor of Orchestra. For further particulars apply to director at the school.

~ **********************

Mantner, Miss Rita Baer, Mr. Herbert J. Rich, Mr. Lester Newman, and Mr. Arat Lehman's Hall last evening

Mrs. A. M. Fishel returned from a two weeks' visit to New York on Thursday. Mrs. Ben Frank has returned to her home in Baltimore, after a short visit to her mother, Mrs. Charles Kaufman. Mrs. Levy, of New York, is the guest f her sister, Mrs. Arthur Baumgarten,

Mr. and Mrs. J. Pressler, of 1317 T Miss Clarice Lorraine Tuck, of New street, celebrated their fifth wedding an- York, is the guest of Mrs. J. Hillman, of > Miss Rae Cohen, of Columbus, Ga., the guest of Mrs. W. Rosenberg, is spending a few days in Baltimore, Md.

> Miss Laura Adler and Miss Helene Barchfeld are in Baltimore for a short visit, the guests of Mrs. Joseph Uhlman. Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Strauss, of Baltimore, were the guests of Mrs. Marx Kaufman during their recent visit to the

Mrs. I. L. Blount has returned from a visit to New York. Mr. Jonas Orttinger, of Wilson, N. C., was a recent visitor to the city. Miss E. Frank, of Wilmington, Del, was the guest of friends for a few days.

Mr. L. S. Kann, of Baltimore, was in the city for a short stay. Mr. and Mrs. Sol Peyser, of Newport

Mr. Louis Goldsmith paid a short visit to Atlantic City the early part of the

Mrs. Obendorfer and Miss Lottie Obendorfer have returned from New York, and are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Abraham

Miss Selma Ullman, of Fredericksburg, Va., is the guest of Mrs. M. E. Rheim, of Miss Nellie Haas, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mrs. F. K. Levi, of 2471 Eighteenth street.

A LEXANDRIA.

Miss Gretta McCoy, of Riverton, Va., is the guest of Mrs. Edward H. Kemper in North Washington street. Mr. and Mrs. T. Anderson Sommers left here on Monday last, for Somerset,

Va., to visit Mr. Sommers' parents. Mr. John A. Marshall and Mr. Milton Fairfax have returned from an extended visit to Hot Springs, Ark.

Miss Mildred Foster has as her guest Miss Elsie Wellford, of Warsaw, Va. Miss Rebecca Wollberg has returned from a visit to relatives in Philadelphia and New York. Mr. R. Bruce Emerson has gone to New Orleans to attend the Mardi Gras. Mr. Henderson Carter, of The Planes,

Miss Helen Crampton has returned to her home in Washington, after a visit to Miss Charlotte Backburn. Mrs. Kosciusko Kemper, jr., has as

Va., was the guest of Mrs. William

Greene this past week.

France yesterday for this country and is of Delaplane, Va. Miss Beatrice Darneille has returned to her home, in Memphis, Tenn., after an extended visit to Miss Mildred Foster,

> Mrs. Agnes Quarles, of Delaphane, Va., is visiting Miss Sarah Kemper, in Queen

The Duplicate Bridge Club met at the residence of Mrs. Louis S. Scott on Tues-

Continued on Page 5, Column 5,

When the Occasion Demands a Carriage,

E. F. DROOP & SONS CO.

CLOSED

On Account of the Death of Mr. E. F. DROOP

DROOP'S MUSIC HOUSE

923-925 Pa. Ave.

When Buying

Olive Olive Oll for medicinal or any other uses, it's highly important that you get the PURE, FRESH Oil, Both QUALITY and QUANTITY can be assured by ordering here. Our Lucca Olive Oil is imported direct and bottled on the premises. pts., 50c, full

W. Thompson Pharmacy, Frank C. Henry, Prop.

Engraving.

We believe we have the best equipped plant in this section of the country.

> Your orders will be filled well and promptly.

BRENTANO'S STORE F and 12th Sts. ******************

COKE is reliable as well as inexpensive.

g. We fi supply you.
Bushels Large Coke, delivered.
Bushels Large Coke, delivered.
Bushels Large Coke, delivered.
Bushels Crushed Coke, delivered
Bushels Crushed Coke, delivered
Bushels Crushed Coke, delivered
Bushels Crushed Coke, delivered

413 Tenth Street N. W.

Washington Gaslight Co.,

1313 F Street N. W. Formerly 13th and G sts.

Shampooing, 50c Scalp Treatment, 50c

Hattie M. Shackletle Specialist for Hair, Skin, and Nails. Only women and children treated. 1002-04 F STREET N. W. 'Phone M. 3474.

OUR NEW LOCATION her guest her sister, Miss Hattie Green, M. N. HEKIMIAN & CO.